

Cookie Policy

Last updated: May 4, 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how Lexora Prep uses cookies and similar technologies on our website and platform.

Cookies help the platform operate securely, remember preferences, support login, and improve the user experience.

01 What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website.

Similar technologies may include local storage, pixels, tags, scripts, and device identifiers.

02 Strictly Necessary Cookies

Strictly necessary cookies are required for login, account security, session management, checkout, fraud prevention, and basic platform functionality.

These cookies cannot be turned off because the platform cannot operate properly without them.

03 Preference Cookies

Preference cookies remember display settings, saved preferences, cookie choices, and similar user-selected options.

---

04 Analytics Cookies

Analytics cookies help us understand how visitors use Lexora Prep, which pages are visited, which features are used, and where performance or usability can be improved.

05 Marketing Cookies

Marketing cookies may help measure advertising performance, referral activity, or campaign effectiveness.

Where legally required, marketing cookies are not enabled without consent.

06 Payment Processor Cookies

Third-party payment processors may use their own cookies for checkout, tax calculation, fraud prevention, payment processing, invoices, and subscription management.

Lexora Prep does not control all cookies set by third-party payment processors during checkout.

07 Consent and Preferences

You can accept all cookies, reject non-essential cookies, or manage your preferences where cookie controls are available.

You may also control cookies through your browser settings.
